Article 8 - PLAY ELEMENTS IN THE PARK

1. If there are any play elements for children in or around the park, these are intended for children up to 12 years of age
2. Children's safety while using the play elements is the responsibility of their legal guardians/the person who accompanied them to the park.

Article 9 - TAKINGS PHOTOS AND MAKING VIDEOS

1. In the park, visitors are allowed to take photos and make videos for their own use while respecting and protecting the privacy of other visitors.
2. Taking photos and making videos for public presentation and for commercial purposes must be agreed in advance in writing with the heritage site manager, specifying the date of taking the photos or making the videos and other details. Please send any requests for taking pictures/filming to: Management of the State Chateau of Ratibořice, Ratibořice 1, 552 03 Česká Skalice, e-mail: ratiborice@npu.cz, telephone: 491 452 123, 723 468 183.
3. In the event that a cultural or any other event open to the public is held in the park, the visitor acknowledges and understands that during the event, photographic/video documentation of the event may be taken. This documentation will be used exclusively to meet the legitimate interests of the National Heritage Institute (also referred to as "NHI") for the purposes of promoting the event, informing about the event, etc. on the website, social networks, printed materials, etc. The photographic/video documentation will be taken mainly to capture the course of the event as a whole, not specific individuals. If visitors have any objections to this, they can contact the event organiser. The National Heritage Institute always protects any personal data obtained against misuse and processes them in accordance with currently applicable laws. Information on the protection of personal data, including advice on the rights of visitors, is available on the NHI website at www.npu.cz in the personal data protection section.
4. Flying drones is prohibited on the lands of the National Heritage Institute (NHI) without prior written permission ("Consent to Engage in the Operation of Unmanned Systems", hereinafter the "Consent"). Consent to fly over a heritage site under the management of the National Heritage Institute may be issued on the basis of a written application by the head of the heritage site management (chateau management) or the director of the regional heritage site management of the National Heritage Institute.

Article 10 - SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

1. For any activities in the castle park that are the subject of business or lead to financial gain of the organizer of such activities, it is necessary to request prior approval from the chateau management - head of the chateau management and to make an agreement.
2. For any other activities (also non-profit) in the chateau park, it is necessary to request prior approval from the chateau manager - head of the heritage sites management.

Article 11 - FINAL PROVISIONS

1. Visitors can submit their wishes, compliments or comments in writing directly at the heritage site in the book of wishes and complaints, which will be presented to them upon request by the head of the heritage site management, or verbally, in writing or by phone to: Management of the State Chateau of Ratibořice, Ratibořice 1, 552 03 Česká Skalice, e-mail: ratiborice@npu.cz, tel: 491 452 123, 723 468 183.; or the National Heritage Institute, Regional Heritage Site Management at Sychrov: bidlasova.lucie@npu.cz.
2. The visitor is liable to the National Heritage Institute or the manager of the heritage site for violation of the Rules for Visitors and for damage to property, in accordance with the applicable laws. The liability of the management of the heritage site for any damage caused to visitors during their stay on the grounds is governed by the generally applicable laws. The National Heritage Institute is not liable to visitors for damages resulting from failure to comply with these Rules for Visitors.
3. Exceptions to the Rules for Visitors may be granted by the chateau manager - head of the heritage sites management.
4. These Rules for Visitors enter into effect on 1 January 2023 and the existing Rules for Visitors are being repealed at the same time.
